

Programme

Symposium ZEICHENSTURM

19. February 2011

2 till 6 pm

brut im Künstlerhaus
Karlsplatz 5, 1010 Wien

2 till 3 pm

Untranslatable? No, we can!

Ing. Lukas Huber

A short introduction to the situation of the deaf people as well as to the sign and speaking language translation situation in Austria.

What we can learn

Mag. Helene Jarmer

About the education system and more.

3.15 till 4.15 pm

The Art of how to be old

Prof. Peter Dimmel

About how we (could) live when we are old.

Gehörlos aber nicht still

Manfred Schütz with Thomas Jehle

Talk about homosexuality and deafness.

From 4.30 pm

Pardon, I can't hear you

Yosi Wanunu

Lecture about silent films as well as films where deaf people appear.

Poetry Signing Singing

Romeo Seifert

Sign language poet Romeo Seifert introduces his poetry.

Sign Language Interpretation by Isabella Rausch and Elke Schaumberger

Extra: Circus tricks by Nicolas Cheucle

Biographies

Ing. Lukas Huber

is a general secretary and a board member of Austrian National Association of the Deaf promoting human rights, equal opportunities and combating discrimination.

Mag. Helene Jarmer

is representative of the National Assembly of Austria for the Green Party and project head of the Servicecenter ÖGS Barrierefrei.

Prof. Peter Dimmel

is head of the National Association of the Deaf Society in Upper Austria, president emeritus of Austrian National Association of the Deaf and won the Life Award 2010.

Manfred Schütz

is founder of the platform „queer as deaf“ and is also committed to the rights of people with disability at a cross-party political level, notably of deaf / hard of hearing - regardless of their sexual orientation and identity.

Thomas Jehle

works as an architect, musician, club and label owner and is cofounder of the lesbian-gay discourse platform Queerograd.

Yosi Wanunu

is a theatre and film director, performer and cofounder of the Viennese performance group toxic dreams.

Romeo Seifert

works as a social worker in the department/clinic of the Deaf and is a Sign Language poet.

Organisation symposium ZEICHENSTURM

Xiaoshu Alice Hu, Paulina Sarbinowska, Michikazu Matsune

Performance ZEICHENSTURM

17 – 20 February, 8 pm

<http://www.brut-wien.at/start.php?navid=detail&id=530>